

Lulu's weekend with the Johnsons

On Friday night, Lulu came home to Amelia (and Daphne) Johnson's house. Lulu met Amelia's dogs, Grizzly and Cadbury. Grizzly is the black dog and he is 6 years old. Cadbury is the golden dog and she is 12. They didn't even mind sharing the house with a bird for the weekend. Daphne called Lulu "Amelia's Lulu" and asked a few times "Where's Daphne's Lulu?" They were good at sharing Lulu and took care of her all weekend. After introductions, Lulu, Amelia and Amelia's mama read the entire book of Lulu's adventures with other Blue Room friends. Amelia especially enjoyed Amelia Ann's pictures of Lulu at Disney on Ice. At bed time, Amelia made a special bed for Lulu (like the Freshley's). Night night, Lulu.

On Saturday morning, Amelia, Daphne and Lulu went to the Tuckahoe Library's family story time on Saturday morning. Lulu sat up front with Amelia (and green room friend Katie!). They learned all about polar bears, penguins, beluga whales, arctic hares, and other Arctic and Antarctic animals. Amelia noticed that penguins are the same colors as Lulu! The librarian was very nice and introduced Lulu to the library's story-time-helper monkey. Lulu was so pleased to meet him.

After the library, Lulu helped Amelia make birthday cards for Mitchell and Morgan. They worked with makers, stickers, some stampers, and a little bit of glitter glue. Amelia said that Lulu enjoyed helping her most with the stickers.

The highlight of Lulu's weekend was attending Mitchell and Morgan's 4th birthday party with lots of Blue Room friends. Lulu loved saying hi to Chuck E Cheese and sharing in the pizza and cake birthday feast. It was so crowded and crazy a ton of fun! Some of you were very good at helping keep track of her, and move her to the front of the birthday table to join in the celebration. Thanks! It was really good that Lulu actually came home with us and didn't get lost!

Some friends visited on Saturday night and Amelia and Lulu stayed up way too late. So they had a quiet Sunday morning and got to watch the Tinkerbell movie and a Chicka Chicka 1-2-3 video from the Library. Later, they met Blue Room pal Catriona at the park. It was a little muddy and Amelia, Daphne and Lulu all fell in the dirt on the way to the playground. Lulu got a little dirty! But that is all part of the fun at the park. The girls introduced Lulu to the Crow's Nest, and then ran around calling Lulu by the name "Scuttle". Do you know what movie "Scuttle" is from? Of course you do. The other important event at the park was introducing Lulu to the geese and ducks in the ponds. They are a lot noisier than Lulu!

Amelia and Lulu took a great nap after all of the excitement at the park. They played outside on a moon bounce with all of Amelia and Daphne's neighbors and Blue Room pal Catriona, again! Lulu got to meet all kinds of kids, from ages 4 months to 10 years. She even rolled around in an inflatable ball with Amelia. Lulu thought when the kids squeezed back out the hole in the ball, it looked like they were hatching from an egg! It was such a beautiful day. Lulu and the girls were lucky to be able to spend so much time outside even though it was the end of January.

Sunday evening, the Johnsons took Lulu to their next-door neighbor's house to watch the Superbowl. Two boys, Trey and Troy live there and they have a lot of neat toys. Amelia and Lulu are holding a Giant Football-Shaped Box of Chocolates in the picture to the right! Can you imagine that many chocolates? Lulu rooted for the Cardinals, of course, because they are birds too!

Lulu remembers her visit with the Freshleys, and how much they love the Steelers, so she was happy for them too. Lulu, Amelia and Daphne went to bed very quickly after such a full weekend of fun. We really enjoyed having Lulu stay with us and we can't wait to hear of her adventures with the rest of you.
